

My wish is that lots and lots of people
Could discover what I am discovering right now
A place in the depths of my very own Heart
Which is SO deep, SO silent and SO safe it cannot be described

It is as deep as the Ocean

And as Silent as I imagine the Cosmos to be
It ends all involvement with pettiness and division
And creates a profound respect for our capacity as Humans

To live in a stunning, unbounded Peace

That brings us to our knees for the moment of this discovery
